

Soul Alchemy School

@ruthpringleholistic

Welcome to this new chapter! Soul Alchemy is all about bringing the magic back to life. Putting a spring back in your step, with a little wink to the mystic that most definitely lives inside of you.

How would you feel if you knew you could trust yourself... if you could make clear decisions... if you could peek into the future ... and if you could really let go of what's holding you back?

Now is the time to discover all of this ... and more. On Saturday 2nd December we begin an exciting journey that will continue through 2024 if you accept the invitation.

When you're tired of life being the same old, when you're exhausted by life and when you're ready for change – then the magic can begin.

From 10am-1pm on Saturday 2nd December you are invited to peel away the layers and begin the new. Or... stop the old and be what you truly are – a bright radiant being full of energy, decisive confidence and ready to create life in the moment.

I invite you to take that leap of faith and join us for a magical morning full of alchemy for your life so that you can begin the New Year prepared, ready and assured.

As a special welcome treat, I am offering this taster morning at the early bird price of £50 – normally £75. You have nothing to lose and everything to gain as you learn how to master life at an alchemical level. Ongoing experiences will be offered throughout 2024 to develop your own personal mastery.

Book now – early bird price of £50 ends Tues 28th at 12 noon when it will revert to the full price of £75. In person @ruthpringleholistic Helen's Bay, Co. Down.
